WORK EXPERIENCE

Trainee

May 2024 - present

Passionate and dedicated data science trainee with a strong foundation in statistics, programming, and machine learning concepts. Currently undergoing intensive training in data science methodologies, including data preprocessing, predictive modeling, and data visualization. Eager to apply theoretical knowledge to real-world projects and gain hands-on experience in analyzing complex datasets. A quick learner with excellent problem-solving skills and a proactive approach to continuous learning. Enthusiastic about contributing to cutting-edge projects and making meaningful contributions to the field of data science

PROJECTS

Web Scrapping
